

Hisey Park near Waynesville sports several nature trails over more than 100 acres of habitat. Interpretive signs have been erected along the wetland trail habitat providing a wealth of information about the importance of wetland ecosystems and the plants and animals that make wetlands their homes. A meadow trail and a 1.44-mile looping interpretive woodland trail provide opportunities to experience varied habitats and wildlife encounters in Hisey Park.

Click here to see more trail photo's in our park photo library.

